No communication was received for or against the project.

Discussion was held on the definition and use of “warehousing without sales”. The Planning Commission wanted to clarify that if a business was categorized or identified as a “warehousing without sales”, use, special sales events will not be precluded. Director Williams further clarified that the C-1 (Community Commercial District) is intended for uses that serve the neighborhood and typically does not generate vehicular traffic. He stated that department stores are more of a regional/destination type of use which generates vehicular traffic.

The Planning Commission discussed the definition of hazardous substances being clarified in the code. This allows for better regulation of hazardous substance users to be regulated by the Planning, Building and Safety, and Fire Departments.
