B. HEALTHY FONTANA ANNUAL REPORT 2017 – MICHAEL WRIGHT

Community Services Manager Michael Wright introduced Community Services Coordinator Jasmine Sarsadias to provide an Annual Report on Healthy Fontana.

The Healthy Fontana program launched in 2004 to promote healthier lifestyles by educating and encouraging the community to improve their quality of life through four components: Nutrition, Active Living, Smart Growth, and Partnerships.

Through the Fontana Expanded Learning Program, over 4,000 students are reached each year at 37 elementary and middle school sites on the importance of a well-balanced diet and daily physical activity.

Mobile Fresh brings the convenience of a grocery store to residents at the Fontana Community Senior Center and along the Pacific Electric Trail all year long. Participants purchase fruits, vegetables, and whole grains at a lower cost than the conventional market.

Healthy Jr. Chef Cooking Classes teach children between the ages of 8 and 14 how to prepare healthy snacks.

Summer Programming was offered through partnership with Water of Life Community Church to introduce youth to MyPlate, a guide to healthy eating and healthy recipes.

The “Eat Healthy, Fontana!” Cooking Show airs on Saturday & Sunday mornings on KFON with Chef Sandra teaching how to make delicious meals.

In September 2017, the City of Fontana was awarded over $9,000 for the Fontana Walks program. AARP’s Community Challenge Grant provided financial support for a year-long walking challenge designed to encourage and motivate residents to be more physically active on a daily basis with a goal to walk two billion steps over the course of one year.

Through a Nutrition Education Obesity Prevention grant from the San Bernardino County Department of Public Health, Healthy Fontana has been working with markets in the community to provide nutrition education and healthy food demonstrations.

Healthy Fontana educated over 1,000 Snap-Ed eligible participants in the retail setting and outreached to nearly 2,000 Snap-Ed eligible participants at community events, health fairs and other culturally appropriate events/gatherings.

In collaboration with the San Bernardino County Department of Health, the Healthy Retail Recognition program was created with a goal to engage qualifying retail stores to develop and implement a program to increase access to healthy fruits, vegetable and beverages. Healthy Fontana participates in community events throughout the year such as Fontana Days Festival, Hispanic Heritage Month, and Halloween events, to promote healthier options and physical activity.

Healthy Fontana is successful due to the support and collaboration of partners.

The annual Let’s Move on the Trail is a great example of how partners can come together for the betterment of the community.

Motion was made by Commissioner Vaquera, seconded by Commissioner Key, and passed by a vote of 6-0 to receive and file New Business Items A-B (AYES: Rowland,

Key, Jones, Vaquera, Ahumada, Sangha; NOES: None)
