A. SPORTS ANNUAL RECAP – RAFAEL GONZALEZ

Community Services Supervisor, Rafael Gonzalez, introduced Community Services Coordinator Vanessa Cortez, to provide the Sports Annual Recap.

Community Services Coordinator Vanessa Cortez reported that during the 2011 calendar year, the City of Fontana's Sports Division offered a variety of year round recreational programs designed to provide athletes with basic sport fundamentals, game strategy, physical fitness, education and sportsmanship. Athletes experienced a sense of teamwork, while promoting self-esteem regardless of their age or athletic skill level.

The City of Fontana Sports Division is committed to providing a quality, safe, fun, recreational sport experience while honoring the game.

Benefits of participation include introduction to various sports; everyone plays; fun is number one; lifelong experiences; builds character; sportsmanship; teamwork; creates friendships; develops motor skills; afterschool leisure activities.

The Sports Division offers programs in three different age divisions Pee Wee Sports for ages 3 to 7; Youth/Teen Sports for ages 8 to 17; and Adult Sports for ages 18 and over.

Pee Wee Sports is an instructional six week season with three weeks of practice and three weeks of games where all participants receive a program shirt and award. Pee Wee Sports programs offered include:

Basketball is offered twice annually – January through February and June through July; with an annual community impact of 521 participants and 1,300 spectators. The program is held at Fontana Park and has 48 volunteer coaches.

Soccer is offered every spring – April through May; with an annual community impact of 587 participants and 1,500 spectators. The program is held at the Ralph M. Lewis Sports Complex and Southridge Park and has 42 volunteer coaches.

T-Ball is offered every summer – August through September; with an annual community impact of 432 participants and 1,100 spectators. The program is held at Coyote Canyon Park, Veteran's Park, Southridge Park, and McDermott Park and has 36 volunteer coaches.

Youth Sports are offered in eight week seasons with playoff opportunity in a single elimination with consolation bracket. Youth Sports programs offered include:

Basketball is offered three times a year – January through March, May through June, and August through September; with an annual community impact of 1,182 participants and 2,300 spectators. The program is held at Fontana Park and multiple middle school sites and has 96 volunteer coaches. There is a partnership with the Clippers organization.

Flag Football is offered every fall – October through November; with an annual community impact of 103 participants and 200 spectators. The program is held at Southridge Park and Hunter's Ridge Park with 11 volunteer coaches.

Roller Hockey is offered twice a year – October through December and March through May; with an annual community impact of 184 participants with 350 spectators. The program is held at Fontana Park with 24 volunteer coaches. There is a partnership with the Kings organization.

There were partnerships with the Los Angeles Clippers and the Los Angeles Kings in 2011. In January 2011, the City of Fontana passed out 1,100 tickets to Youth Basketball Program participants and parents to attend a Clippers game. Before the game, the sports division ran a two-hour clinic on the Staples Center court for all participants in attendance. The Los Angeles Kings partnered with the City's Youth Roller Hockey Program. In November, the Sports Division invited 235 program participants and parents to attend a Kings' game. Prior to the game, the Youth Roller Hockey players had the opportunity to ice skate inside the Staples Center. Both partnerships proved to be very popular and successful.

Track and Field is offered every spring – April through May; with an annual community impact of 24 participants and 50 spectators. The program is held at Summit High School and Fontana High School.

Adult Sports are offered in ten week seasons year-round with playoff opportunity. Adult Sports programs offered include:

Basketball Leagues are offered every Saturday morning, Sunday morning and Friday evening; with an annual community impact of 1,110 participants and 550 spectators. The program is held at Fontana Park.

Softball Leagues are offered in men's divisions on Thursday evenings and Sunday mornings and in co-ed divisions on Friday evenings and Sunday afternoons; with an annual community impact of 690 participants and 400 spectators. The program is held at Southridge Park.

Soccer Leagues are offered on Friday evenings and Sunday mornings and afternoons; with an annual community impact of 1,392 participants and 700 spectators. The program is offered at Ralph M. Lewis Sports Complex.

Roller Hockey Leagues are offered on Thursday evenings; with an annual community impact of 210 participants and 100 spectators. The program is offered at Fontana Park.

Sports Camps were offered at Fontana Park with 258 boys and girls aged 7 to 14 that participated in a variety of sports related activities. Campers were based in the Fontana Park Sports Pavilion, where many of the day's activities took place. The camp also utilized other amenities of Fontana Park, including the pool, playground, community center and grass areas.

During the 2011 calendar year, the City of Fontana Sports Division offered 25 different seasons and camp programs to nearly 7,000 participants. These programs also had an additional attendance of over 8,000 individuals that attend a game or practice as a spectator and 257 volunteer coaches. In total, the Sports Division had a total annual attendance of 15,517.

For any further information or any questions, the City of Fontana Sports hotline number is 909.428.8864.

Discussion was held on the ages of participants in track and field. Track and field is offered for youth aged 8-17 years old.

The Parks and Recreation brochure was shared with the community.

Discussion was held on the maximum number of individuals that can participate in the summer camps. There is a maximum enrollment of 100 participants per week.

Discussion was held on Basketball camp being a specialized camp that can accept 250 participants.

Discussion was held on the programs offering services to participants with special needs and parents being turned away. The sports programs are not focused on competitiveness, but on the fundamentals, so all children are accepted. The contact person for any problems is Rafael Gonzalez and he can be reached at 909.349.6912.

Chairperson Rowland thanked Rafael and Hector for all they do with the sports program.

B. ANNUAL CALENDAR OF EVENTS ORAL UPDATE – ROB BOCK

Community Services Supervisor Rob Bock shared a memo on the 2012 Community Services Annual Calendar of Events at the dais. The thirty eight events listed are the larger community based events, comprised mostly of City of Fontana community services events, co-sponsored events such as the Steelman Challenge (Rotary Club), Miss Fontana (Rotary Club), Special Olympics (Kiwanis Club), Relay for Life (Fontana Unified School District and the American Cancer Society), Mayor's Jazz Jam (Boys and Girls Club), the Fontana Days Festival, Fontana Days Parade, and Christmas Parade (Exchange Club) and National Night Out and Family Safety and Preparedness Fair (Fontana Police Department).

The calendar was shared to allow Commissioners to plan their busy schedules to be able to participate in events as they always come out to support City events. A three month calendar will be shared soon as more events are added and event sites are confirmed.

ACTION: Motion was made by Commissioner Tigner, seconded by Commissioner Espinoza, and passed unanimously by a vote of 5-0; to receive and order filed the reports given under New Business.
