

HOW DO I UPDATE THE VULNERABLE PERSON'S ENTRY INTO THE REGISTRY?

Reviewing and updating the information is critical to the Vulnerable Persons Registry success. Updating the information provided is the responsibility of the person completing the registry entry. It is recommended that you review your entry every year on the date of birth of the person entered in the registry. A representative of the Fontana Police Department will contact you approximately each year to confirm the information provided is still correct.

